
Vote Travis Day!

TO THE EDITOR:

As a parent of a student in the Carteret County schools I support Travis Day.

As a former member of the Board of Education I support Travis Day.

As a current County Commissioner I support Travis Day.

As a friend I 100% support Travis Day.

Travis is a good person and does his diligence on every issue. We may not agree on every issue, but I guarantee you he has done his homework and can justify his decision. Before Travis ran for the Board of Education he served on the Parent Advisory Council. Travis has coached his children in recreation sports and been a parent cheering his children on as others coached them. Travis works in the education industry for the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Travis is a good teacher, a good husband, a good father, and good community member.

I do not know Mrs. Beasley and I am sure she is a great person and if Travis were not running I am sure I would support her, but Travis is running. I think you should get to know a person before you say negative things about them. Travis Day is a good person, a smart person and the person to vote for!!!
